

W

THE WRITING CENTER Presents

riteNight

Wednesday, Dec. 3, 2014
O'Leary 3rd Floor
5 - 8 p.m.

Workload piling up? Deadlines approaching?
Looking for help with your writing?
Don't be overwhelmed!

Come to WRITE NIGHT

Writing Center faculty and tutors will lead workshops and provide resources to help you with end-of semester writing.

- Get a jumpstart on your final papers.
- Review strategies for writing effective essay exams.
- Learn techniques for editing and proofreading your own work.
- Get feedback on your works-in-progress.
- Enjoy free pizza.

All Disciplines Welcome

Workshops will cover writing techniques that apply to any field; you can work on a paper for any class. No matter where you are in the writing process, or what class you're writing for, we can help.

You bring drafts, notes, outlines, assignment sheets, questions, or ideas; we'll provide tips, techniques, feedback, food—and prizes!

Write Night at the Writing Center

5 p.m.

Registration

5:15–6:30 p.m.

Choose from workshops on: Brainstorming Ideas, Composing Thesis Statements, Organizing Information, Writing Introductions and Conclusions, Evaluating Sources, and Citing Sources and Formatting Papers (APA & MLA).

6:30-8 p.m.

One-on-one tutoring, pizza, and prizes

All participants will receive free writing resources and be entered into a raffle for additional prizes.

Come for a quick review or stay for the whole event.

Learning with Purpose

For further information, contact The Writing Center:
978-934-5270