

Chantal J. Cole

Education

- University of New Hampshire, Durham, NH – DNP, December 2023
Rivier College, Nashua, NH – MSN, Education – Diploma, May 2011
Rivier College, Nashua, NH – A.S., Nursing (Dean’s List) – Diploma, May 2006
Saint Anselm College, Manchester, NH – B.A., Biology – Diploma, May 2004
Manchester Central High School, Manchester, NH – Diploma 2000

Employment History and Related Experience

University of Massachusetts, Lowell September, 2024 -present

- Professor of health assessment for sophomore undergraduate nursing students
- Professor in health assessment skills lab
- Professor for undergraduate senior nursing students in senior practicum experiences
- ATI champion

Emerson Hospital, Concord, MA June 2018-present

- Perform all aspects of nursing care to antepartum, intrapartum postpartum and neonatal. This includes patient triage, admission assessment, and development of individually based nursing care plans and management of patient and family care.
- Intraoperative skills as a circulating nurse for Cesarean deliveries

University of New Hampshire Assistant Clinical Faculty January 2013- May 2015, June 2018- 2024

- Instructor of nursing leadership for senior UG students
- Instructor of simulation lab for maternal/child health for junior students
- Assistant instructor for fundamentals skills labs
- Collaborate with various hospitals in Massachusetts, New Hampshire, and Maine for senior practicum experiences
- Utilize Canvas to deliver course instruction
- Utilized Zoom for course instruction during the Covid-19 pandemic
- ATI champion
- Collaborated with various elementary schools in New Hampshire and Massachusetts for pediatric experiences
- Guided documentation of SOAP notes and nursing plans for senior students
- Instructed direct entry master nursing students in the obstetrical setting
- Instructed undergraduate nursing students in the obstetrical and pediatric setting
- Utilized the UNH documentation system to further nursing students’ knowledge

ATI Champion Present

- Collaborate with faculty members on implementing ATI products within the curriculum
- Work with students on remediation if unsuccessful on ATI exams for the UG nursing program
- Engage in quarterly ATI Champion meetings to stay up to date on new products and implementation strategies
- Be one of two point people in the nursing department to help faculty troubleshoot ATI issues

Southern NH Medical Center RN, Nashua, NH July 2006 – April 2015

- Perform all acute care family nursing aspects, including antepartum, intrapartum, postpartum, and neonatal. This includes patient triage, admission assessment, and development of individually based nursing care plans and management of patient and family care.
- Cross-staffed to the pediatric unit, caring for infants through early childhood
- Intraoperative skills as a circulating nurse for Cesarean deliveries
- Evaluate and score infants exposed to methadone and other chemical substances; assist physicians with circumcision procedures and parental education regarding procedure and care
- Precept student nurses and new orientees to the unit

Rivier College, Adjunct Clinical Faculty September 2011-May 2012

- Instructed undergraduate nursing students in the obstetrical setting
- Utilized hospital documentation system to further students' knowledge
- Assisted and guided nursing assessments and documentation throughout the rotation
- Trained students to work with a team of medical personnel in the obstetrical setting

Elliot Hospital Phlebotomist, Manchester, NH: May, 2003–May 2006

- Provide comfort and care to patients throughout the lab process
- Provide professional advice and explanations about laboratory tests and procedures
- Interact with physicians and staff on an “As Needed” basis
- Respond to traumas and emergency situations throughout the hospital

Professional Licensures/Memberships

New Hampshire Nursing License	2006-Present
Massachusetts Nursing License	2009-Present
ANA member	Present
AWHONN member	2020-present
MA AWHONN Committee Member	Present
Massachusetts ANA member	Present

Professional Advanced Education

Faculty Instructional Technology Summer Institute	Summer, 2021
UNH Course Design	January 2021
ACUE Credentialed	May 2021
Fundamentals of Online Learning	July 2020
Lactation Advisement Course	Summer 2018
STABLE Program	May 2007
Basic Life Support Certification	June 2022
Maternal Resuscitation Program	September 2018
Neonatal Resuscitation Certification	July 2022
Advanced Nursing Leadership Certificate Program	Anticipated completion, April 2024

Professional Conference Attendance

ATI NGN NCLEX	March 2023
NURSE TIM	February 2022
Nursing Leaders and Managers	October 2021

Scholarship & Research

DNP Quality Improvement Project	March – December 2023
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Collaborated with hospital administrators to complete a quality improvement project for the labor and delivery setting• Collaborated with a virtual reality device company to complete the quality improvement project• Implemented virtual reality into the labor and delivery setting• Determined current epidural and IV pain medication rates for this labor and delivery unit• Created a health stream module for the labor and delivery staff to educate them on the use of VR• Determined the rate of VR use and its effects on epidural rates and IV pain medication use• Presented the data findings to the leadership team and staff and provided recommendations for further use of VR in this clinical setting	